Once notified, the applicant acquires full membership in the Association by payment of the membership fee. Membership renewal must be paid no later than the end of this one-year period.

The Board of Directors decides on the admission of new members, and the Assembly accept them at the first session.

Article 3

The annual membership fee is 3,000 (3,000 denars). Payment of the amount shall be made by the new member within 15 days from the date on which he was granted accession. If not paid within this period, a new application may be made after the expiry of the period of 6 months.

Renewal of membership for existing members is made depending on the period of membership in the current year as follows:

- for members who joined in the first half of the year, the deadline for the next payment of the fee is until February 15 of the following year

- for members who joined in the second half of the year, the deadline for the next payment of the fee is September 15 of the following year.

Article 4

1) Membership in the Association shall cease if the Managing Board determines that the member:

- fails to comply with the requirements of Article 1 of this Regulation or has provided false information when accessing;
- acts contrary to the goals and objectives of the Statute of the Association;
- misuse information and benefits obtained in any way through the Association;
- adversely affects the reputation of the profession or the Association;
- unauthorized use of the logo, name, or any assets owned by the Association.

2) Membership shall terminate automatically in case of non-payment of the annual membership fee within the stipulated period by these Regulations. In such case the Managing Board propose the termination and the Assembly accept it on the first session.

Article 5

The personal data of the members of the Association will be processed in accordance with the Privacy Policy and the Personal Data Protection Act.

The Association's Supervisory Board maintains a register of members with personal information.

Article 6

This Regulation shall apply from the date of its adoption and, if necessary, shall be reviewed and revised within one year.

If any provision of these Rules is contrary to the provisions of the Statutes of the Association, the provisions of the Statutes shall prevail, i.e., such provisions shall supersede the invalid provision.

President:

Ivan Petrushevski
